Old Business

- Jim B has canvassed MMFA membership regarding events for next year. He received 89 comments. A motion was passed to form a committee to consolidate the proposals and bring a recommendation to the membership. The committee members are Dave G, Randy P, Javier S, Don Mc and Atti R with Jim B chairing the committee.
- Warning signs have been put up in the slough corner(NW corner) of the dog park.
- Ed has been in contact with the Heritage Park Pavilion for the purpose of using the pavilion for indoor electric fun flies. They didn't seem concerned regarding the planes doing any damage to the facility. The cost for pavilion rental is $120 per hour. MMFA might be willing to help pay for the first event. Dave E will send an email out to the membership advising of the possibility of using the pavilion for indoor fun flies.
- New signs will be made for club contact names and phone numbers.
- A plane was crashed in the dog park. A dog walker had commented that the pilot was rude to the dog walker.
- Don Mc advised that the MAAC Annual Zone meeting will be held in Red Deer on October, 2012. He asked the club members to fill in a proxy form for the votes.
